—Miss. Annie Doty of the College for Women has been home for a few days.

—Mr. C. L. Wells of Greenwood has been on a short visit to his sister, Mrs. D. G. Ruff.

—Miss Louise Ellison is at home after an extended visit to relatives in the lower part of the State.

—Mrs. Martha Patterson of Greenwood has been spending a few days with Mrs. Jno. P. Matthews.

—There was a most pleasant change in the weather yesterday. The day, though cold, was such a pleasing contrast to the rough weather of the past week.

—Bear in mind the entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 23rd. There is a good time in store for all.

—During the past week there were taken from the library 79 books, not including magazines.

—This is the very best evidence that the library is meeting a felt need.

—If there are any who question the need for a public library in Winnsboro, let them carefully consider the fact that 79 books were taken out of the library during the past week.

—Dr. T. L. Davis, who has graduated from the school of pathology at Kirksville, Mo., is on a short visit to his home in the county and spent a day here last week with his brother, Mr. J. F. Davis.

—By request of the Ladies' Missionary society of Zion Presbyterian church Miss Mattie B. Agold, M. D., will give an address on her work as medical missionary in Korea Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. The ladies of the church are invited to attend.

—Sunday will be the day of the founding of the American Republic. That day, Rev. S. C. Byrd of the Presbyterian church, will address the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and Ridgeway, the latter lodge being invited to be present. The public is invited to attend.

—Postmaster Rion is in the City by the Sea for a few days.

—Mr. Jno. Boag of Washington is spending a few days with his brother, J. O. Boag.

—As soon as the weather will do set out some cabbage plants. McMaster Company can supply you with fine ones.

—Mr. R. N. McMaster fell on the ice last week, breaking a small bone in the left arm.

—See after the garden as soon as possible. It will pay you to give it your very best attention.

—Mrs. M. L. Cozby, Mr. G. G. Mays and two children stopped over with Mrs. C. Byrd Monday on their way to Blackstock.

—Miss Louise Sitgreaves, who has had a position at the News and Herald office for the past two years, has accepted a position with the Caldwell Dry Goods Company. She has won many friends for herself by her uniformly kind and courteous attention to all in the position that she has been filling. She will be glad to see her friends at Caldwell's where she should work to-day. Miss Mary Pagan has accepted the position made vacant at the News and Herald office where she will be glad to have her friends call.

—That Beautiful Gloss comes from the varnish in DeVoe's Varnish Floor Paint; costs 5 cents more a quart though. Sold by John H. McMaster & Co.

—The biggest thing in Winnsboro for the next two weeks will be the big sacrifice sale at the Caldwell Dry Goods Company. Sale opens to-day and continues till March 1.

—Second Week Jurors.

A. J. Brown, A. W. Harrison, D. A. Crawford, M. L. Cooper, R. W. Matthews, T. P. Bryson, C. B. Douglass, Jr., T. M. Neely, H. F. Harrison, Joseph Branham, W. M. Cathcart, W. S. Robinson, L. E. Owens, E. W. Mobley, R. Wade Brice, Sr., S. E. Hill, T. C. Camak, E. G. Friday, R. G. Miller, J. H. Gibson, Jno. S. Cathcart, J. A. Gladden, W. L. Derick, Jno. D. Harrison, H. D. Coleman, H. D. —Money saved is money made. Make money by trading with the Caldwell Dry Goods Company during the big sacrifice sale that opens to-day, and continues till March 1.

—The price of furs has advanced and I will pay the highest prices for furs delivered at once. —T. M. Haynes.

A Big, Big Sale.

The Caldwell Dry Goods Company are advertising in this issue the big sacrifice sale that begins at their store to-day and lasts till March 1. This will be the biggest sale ever held in Winnsboro. $25,000 worth of winter goods and mill end white and other spring goods are to be sold at a sacrifice. For this big sale 15 extra clerks have been engaged in addition to the efficient force now employed at this store, which is ever on the alert for the best interests of their customers. This large force has been engaged because it will be required. The prices at which these goods are being offered will sell them and those who fail to take advantage of the great bargains offered are going to regret it.

The Caldwell Dry Goods Company are not going out of business, but merely reducing their stock, realizing that it is better to have your cash than the goods. They will be so busy during this sacrifice sale, that there will be no time for book-keeping. Terms positively cash. No goods on approval.

—New Rural Routes.

—I handle lime in car lots, can quote low prices.—M. W. Doty.

—Court Notes.

The court of general sessions will convene Monday morning with Judge Purdy presiding. The following murder cases will be tried:

Major Moore for the killing of Tom McLurkin near Blackstock.

Sam Bell for the killing of Ben Peay near Monticello.

Ed. Neil for the killing of Carrie Neil near Greenbrier.

Holbert Johnson for the killing of Jack McCullough on Canaan place.

All the parties are negroes. These together with several other cases will take the whole of the first week. The second week will be taken up with the Skipper-Caskey case transferred from Lancaster.

—One Car Best Columbia Brick for sale.—M. W. Doty.

—With the prices at which all goods are now being offered by the Caldwell Dry Goods Company, your money will go as far as when cotton was ten cents. The sale begins to-day and continues till March 1.

—The first time I read an excellent book it is to me just as if I have gained a new friend. When I read over a book I have perused before, it resembles the meeting with an old one.—Goldsmith.

FOR SALE—A new lot of Buggies and Wagons. Be sure to see them. D. V. Walker & Co. 2-1-3t

Death of Mrs. Wm. Wallace.

From acute inflammation of the lungs, after an illness of only a few days, beginning with a slight cold, Mrs. Fannie Colter Wallace, one of Columbia's most lovable, loved and saintly women, passed away at her home at the corner of Blanding and Henderson streets at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The announcement of the fatal termination of the illness of this esteemed lady, who was apparently in perfect health at the opening of the week, was a severe shock to her loving kinspeople and devoted friends throughout the city.

Mrs. Wallace was the widow of the late gallant Col. William Wallace, who died a few years ago. She breathed her last in the home she had occupied and made so attractive for over two decades. She was a daughter of Dr. David Harper Means and Fannie M. Colter, the last of their 11 children to survive, and on both sides was descended from a long line thoroughly identified with the history of the State. On the paternal side she was the niece of Gov. John H. Means and the Rev. Robert Means. On the maternal side she was the niece of Col. Wm. C. Preston, of Chancellor William Harper, David Gambrell, governor of Missouri, and Edwin Bates, who was attorney general of Missouri.

Mrs. Wallace was born on Sept. 21, 1835, at the old Means home, in Fairfield county, and on March 10, 1859, was married to Dr. John Glover Mobley of the same county. On Dec. 21, 1876, having been left a widow with one son, whose devotion to his mother has never waned as he has advanced in years and who alone survives her she became the wife of Col. William Wallace.

Hon. John G. Mobley of Fairfield the only son of this lovely woman, was with his mother when the end came. Other surviving close relatives living in this city are Mrs. Sadler Gillespie and Mrs. T. M. DuBose, nieces; Mr. Beverley M. English, Mr. D. H. Means and Mr. Hagood Means.

Mrs. Wallace was from her girlhood a devoted member of the Presbyterian church. With her nature was most generous, endowing her with beauty, extraordinary intellectual capacity and with every womanly grace and charm. A devoted Christian, she was never so happy as in doing those things working to the happiness of her loved ones. Never did she turn a deaf ear to the appeal of the poor or the afflicted. None knew her but to love her. She found her greatest pleasure in scattering roses on the pathway of the lives of those around her; she was the soul of gentleness and kindness. She will be sadly missed by many whose lives have been made brighter and happier by association with her—loved ones and friends and the poor alike.—The State, Feb. 10.

The funeral exercises of Mrs. Wallace were conducted from the Presbyterian church Friday evening. The interment was in the cemetery of the church. The pall-bearers were: Honorary, Col. D. J. Griffith, John Crawford, W. S. Pope, W. B. Eowrance, T. J. Hay, W. R. Brooks, W. H. Lyles, Col. J. Q. Marshall; active, Gen. Willie Jones, Gen. J. D. Frost, Hon. W. J. Johnson, W. G. Childs, Richard I. Manning, George W. Brown, D. F. Elford, E. J. Brennat.

Death of Capt. R. W. Gaillard.

News was received here Wednesday of the death of Capt. Richard W. Gaillard at his home in Alexandria, Va., on the 8th. Capt. Gaillard was a native of Fairfield and is survived by his brother, Capt. H. A. Gaillard, and his sisters, Mrs. E. P. Dwight and Mrs. R. E. Ellison, all of this State. His remains were brought here for interment Friday, the pall bearers being J. C. Caldwell, J. A. Brice, W. B. Gilbert, A. S. Douglass, W. A. McDowell, W. B. Rabb, T. H. Ketchin and Longstreet Gantt.

The following notice of the death of Capt. Gaillard from the Alexandria correspondent to the Washington Post will be read with interest here: "Capt. Richard W. Gaillard, a Confederate veteran, died early this morning, after a brief illness at his home on South St. Asph street. He was in the 74th year of his age. His wife survives him. Capt. Gaillard had not been in good health for some time, but his fatal illness was less than a week in duration and the announcement of his death was a surprise to many of his friends. He was a native of South Carolina, from which State he served as a captain in the Confederate army. He was connected by marriage to Representative D. Wyatt Aiken of that State.

"Capt. Gaillard married Miss Boyce, daughter of former Representative Boyce, who also served as a member of the Confederate congress. About 30 years ago Capt. Gaillard moved to Fairfax county, where he lived, near Franconia, until a year and a half ago, when he came to this city to reside. He was always an ardent Democrat, taking an active part in political affairs in Fairfax county, where he was a judge of election. He was for years a member of the school board of Mount Vernon district of that county. His death is deeply regretted by a large circle of friends by whom he was held in high esteem.

"Lee Camp, Confederate veterans, of which he was a member, will attend the funeral in a body. Arrangements for the services have not yet been completed, but the remains will be forwarded either this evening or tomorrow to his former home for interment.

"Attended by Capt. Gaillard's death Mrs. Gaillard was confined to her room by a severe injury which she received in a fall on the ice several days ago. Though the injury at first was not considered serious, it was found later that her hip had been broken."

Library Association Membership.

The list of the members of the Winnsboro Library Association is herewith printed. It will be seen that it contains 112 names, the total number who have joined since the present management was begun a year ago. All the members are continuing their membership and new members are coming in. The membership fee of one dollar entitles to all the take-out privileges of books and periodicals for the period of one year. There are still many in the town who should be members of the association. Then, too, there should be many members from the country, as a book can be taken out for two weeks, which gives ample time for its being returned. Already a number of out-of-town families are taking advantage of the excellent advantages offered by the library, which is open at all hours of the day. Those who are not members are requested to join now. Many new books are to be put in soon, so that those who join now will get their full money's worth.
